FROM THE PRESIDENT

Great show, thanks to us

The 35th Annual Coin Show and Sale was well attended and, once again, many members contributed to its success. See the article by Bill Coe and the list of participants in this issue. We especially appreciate Bill's efforts; he "put it all together." Also, thanks to Joe Lanzafame and his committee (Scott, David, Darlene, Tim, Bill and Ted) for developing the wooden nickel with its theme, "The RNA Gratefully Honors Bill Coe." I know the dealers appreciate the lunches arranged by the Kemps, Richard Imburgia and crew.

Exhibits were all high quality and interesting. Congratulations to Ken Traub for his best-in-show display of rare Canadian notes and currency. The exhibit by RJNA members included their favorite coins and write-ups about them. Each RJNA participant received a certificate at their November meeting. Thank you, Tom Kraus, for leading this project and providing the certificates. The junior club members had both a table and materials to sell at the show thanks to the generous donation of Richard Nachbar, whose present and past support is sincerely appreciated.

One more note about our 2000th meeting on September 6 concerns the exhibit of nonpresidential medals created by Tom Kraus. It included, among others, examples of our speakers and writers medals; the anniversary medals from years 50, 60, 70, 75, and 90; the 1000th and 2000th meetings; and the RJNA medals. Tom is now helping members of RJNA design a new wooden nickel. Thanks, Tom (and Maureen), for your continued support of the junior club.

Special events and exhibits, our annual banquet and the annual picnic (as well as our regular meetings) are only some of the benefits of RNA membership. There is nothing like being there in person to interact with fellow members, hear an off-the-cuff explanation of a complex numismatic issue, learn of a new die variety or see an expert presentation about a set of coins in its historical context.

During the coin show, a lady from eastern New York State brought in a large framed photo of the 1917 Rochester ANA Convention attendees. John Stephens purchased the photo and immediately donated it to our club. (Photo on page 5.) Thank you, John.

Other donations in 2007 include two books donated by Peter Blaisdell, Treasury of Jewish Coins by Ya'akov Meshorer, and Samarian Coinage by Meshorer and Qedar; the new 4th Edition of Early Half Dollar Die Varieties, 1794-1836, by Don Parsley, donated by John Stephens; and auction materials donated by Bill Carr, Peter Blaisdell and Gerry Muhl. Thanks to all who sent in donations with their dues payments as well.

On December 6, members endorsed a proposed bylaws change. The change, printed on page 7 of this RNA News, establishes Board of Directors oversight of RNA Collection acquisition and disposal, and recognizes the position of Assistant Curator (which up to now has been unofficial while ably filled by Gerry Muhl). A copy of the most recent version of our bylaws is posted on our Web site. A vote on the change is scheduled for the February 7 meeting.

As I conclude this letter on the shortest day of the year, I wonder what the future holds for RNA and our numismatic hobby. Do we expect coin and precious metals prices to continue to rise, without correction, into the foreseeable future? Will Heritage auction another newly minted MS70 Lincoln cent for $39,000? What lessons can we learn from past excesses in the marketplace?

As for our club, I believe the future remains bright as long as we continue to provide a varied program that meets the needs of numismatists and the challenge of a changing hobby environment. RNA has members near and far, from California to New Jersey and from New York to Florida. Thank you for your continued support, and best wishes for 2008 and beyond.

Ted Vaccarella

COIN SHOW WRAP-UP

RJNA members get experience at 2007 show

By Bill Coe

Coin Show Committee Treasurer

The RNA held its 35th Annual Coin Show and Sale on November 3 and 4 at the Rochester Museum & Science Center, Eisenhart Auditorium.

The show was a sell-out. Not a space was left for an additional table. Only words of satisfaction were received from the dealers.

As a result of a significant donation (including a table) to the Rochester Junior Numismatic Association by member Richard Nachbar, some members of the RJNA were introduced to the situation of manning a coin show table and selling some of the items for the benefit of their treasury. We can all be proud of the young numismatists that the RJNA produces. Thanks especially to Ursula Loose, Joe Lanzafame and Tom Kraus for their many hours of support and guidance to the youngsters.

With guidance and support from Gerry Muhl and John Zabel, the numismatic exhibit and educational displays were well supported again this year. Thanks to all who participated.

An exhibit of very scarce Canadian paper currency was judged the best by our in-house, officially ANA-qualified judge, John Zabel. The highly desirable Alphonse Kolb Memorial Best-of-Show award plaque was presented to Ken Traub. Ken has been a member since November 11, 1980, is an RNA past president and is a frequent exhibitor at our coin shows. Congratulations and thank you, Ken.

With advertising in Coin World, Numismatic News, the Numismatist, the Stamp Insider and the Democrat and Chronicle, approximately 450 people came to see what they could find for their collections.

Several club members helped with the various activities needed to put on the show. A specific list is shown in another area of this issue; and we thank every one of you. But the project again most praised by the dealers was the delicious, affordable lunches prepared by Jim and Karen Kemp and Richard Imburgia. We know that their efforts put a very good face on the RNA. Thanks to all who helped them make the deliveries. Another feature the dealers comment favorably on is the fact that the RNA is the only group to help them carry their coins into the auditorium. Thanks to all who helped with this phase.

Once again, we thank McLeod Stamp and Coin and Richard Nachbar Rare Coins for providing the door prizes, and Wayne Scheible for underwriting the cost of the program booklets.

Thanks for another successful coin show. Be sure to mark your calendars now for the RNA 36th Annual Coin Show and Sale for November 1 and 2, 2008. It is not too early to begin to plan your exhibit for that show.

Coin Show Wooden Nickel

For the 35th Annual Coin Show, a commemorative wooden nickel was issued, honoring Bill Coe for his many years of dedicated service to the show and to the club.

To eliminate any cost to the RNA, donations were solicited to underwrite the cost of the nickel. We would like to take this time to thank all of those who donated to the effort: Tim & Darlene Corio, Dennis DeYoung, Steve Eisinger, David Gottfried, Randy Jones, Tom Kraus, Joe Lanzafame, Ursula Loose, Joe Mantione, Chip Scoppa, Donovan Shilling and Ted Vaccarella.

RJNA members collaborated on a display of their collecting interests. Exhibitors included Thalia Irwin, 2nd Grade, Queen Elizabeth's 80th Birthday; Colin Cubitt, 3rd Grade, Elongated cent; Thomas Coene, 4th Grade, American Silver Eagle Dollar; Ajay Mishra, 5th Grade, 1909 & 1910 Wheat Cents; Josh Blodgett, 7th Grade, Buffalo Nickel; Romans Janovics, 7th Grade, Brass 10 Rubles Comm. Coin; Luke Hildebrand, 7th Grade, Portuguese 100 Escudos; Matthew Tatum, 7th Grade, Great Britain 2 Shillings; Sam Kashtan, 8th Grade, Liberty Head Nickel; Steve Rutledge, 10th Grade, 3 cent silver and 3 cent nickel; Eshan Mitra, 12th Grade, D/D/D error on 1959 Lincoln Cent.

One of the great things about the Coin Show is that you never know what will come through the doors over the course of the weekend. One of this year's biggest surprises was a framed photo of the ANA's 1917 convention, held at Rochester's Memorial Art Gallery under the aegis of the RNA. The club is grateful to vice president John Stephens for his generous purchase of the picture, which is now a valued part of our club's archives. (Shown here are John Stephens, left, and president Ted Vaccarella, right.)

Bill Coe notes - Is it in the stars? Or were our founding fathers clairvoyant in 1912? After almost 96 years, the Rochester Numismatic Association has just celebrated its 2,000th meeting on September 6, 2007. By the time you read this, two more coincidences will surely fascinate you. The last meeting in the year 2007 (Dec. 20) was our 2,007th meeting. And our first meeting in the year 2008 (Jan. 3) will be our 2,008th meeting! For those of you who are fond of numbers, that is an amazing convergence of circumstances. Is there anyone out there who will take the time to determine if there will be any similar coincidences regarding our rapidly approaching 100th anniversary on January 4, 2012? Unfortunately, our 2,012th meeting will have passed by then – on March 6, 2008. (Your editor's birthday, speaking of lucky coincidences – Ed.)

Notice of proposed RNA bylaws change

December 6, 2007

Proposed change to By Laws, Article V, Officers, Section 4, in order to require Board approval for accession or deaccession of numismatic collection materials, and to add the non-voting position of Assistant Curator.

Current text: Section 4.

(e) Curator. It shall be the duty of the Curator to have sole custody and keep an accurate account of the Association's numismatic collection and its physical possessions other than the library and to arrange and care for its display. He shall report as to the condition of the collection annually or as often as shall be required of him by the Association or by the Board of Directors.

Proposed text (underlined text is new): Section 4.

(e) Curator. It shall be the duty of the Curator to have sole custody and keep an accurate account of the Association's numismatic collection and its physical possessions other than the library and to arrange and care for its display. He shall report as to the condition of the collection annually or as often as shall be required of him by the Association or by the Board of Directors. Accession or deaccession of numismatic collection materials may be recommended by the Curator or Association members, and shall be approved or denied by a majority vote of the Board of Directors.

(f) Assistant Curator. Annually, the Curator may appoint one or more members as Assistant Curator to assist in the performance of the Curator's duties. The Assistant Curator may have access to the collection with the permission of the Curator, and shall have no vote on the Board of Directors. The Assistant Curator shall take office only when approved by a majority vote of the Board of Directors, for a term concurrent and ending with that of the Curator, unless earlier termination be made by a majority vote of the Board of Directors. A reappointed Assistant Curator may continue in office pending a vote at the next meeting of the Board of Directors. A copy of the appointment (reappointment) letter shall be forwarded to the Secretary.

(g) Librarian. Former section (f) is re-designated section (g).

Applications Corner

The following people have applied for membership in the RNA since the last issue of the RNA News. RNA members with pertinent information about applicants are requested to contact the Membership Committee, in care of Bill Coe. If no objections are received within 45 days after publication, these applicants will become members of the RNA:

John C. Lighthouse, Rochester, NY
Jeffrey C. Snyder, Fairport, NY

Roy G. Gallo, Rochester, NY
Theodore (Ted) J. Kraus, Rochester, NY

Dates in RNA History

Compiled by Gerard Muhl

January 2, 1940: Honorary RNA member Congressman Ashbrook dies.

January 6, 1940: RNA banquet at Hotel Seneca costs $1.25. Festivities started at 3 p.m., with dinner at 6:30 p.m. followed by slides and an auction. It ended at 11 p.m.

January 16, 1940: Mr. Peake sells Scottish coins to the RNA.

January 4, 1946: ANA President Lewis Reagan speaks at the RNA banquet.

January 15, 1946: RNA votes to add current-year U.S. coins to its collection each year.

January 4, 1947: The 35th Anniversary RNA medal is struck.

January 21, 1947: Forty-eight youth from ages 12 to 17 organize the RJNA. Ed Meinhart is chairman; Charles Ricard is program chairman.

January 3, 1948: RJNA has more than 50 members. C.E. Moore is made an RNA Life Member.

January 25, 1949: Mr. Place is made an honorary member of the RNA.

January 7, 1950: Ed Gilroy speaks on the danger of communism at the RNA banquet.

January 2, 1954: Charles Cop gives a half-hour magic show at the RNA banquet.

January 1, 1955: Arthur Parker, RNA President in 1928, dies.

January 7, 1956: Annual banquet has piano and violin program. Norman Prince leads singing. A. Kolb presents a two-scene play. Attendance numbers 116. Brandy and cigars follow.

February 4, 1940: George Bauer holds first sale of RNA member George Gillette's 20,000-item coin collection.

February 4, 1941: Gustave Lindboe made "fellow of the Rochester Museum" in numismatics.

February 18, 1941: Caledonia and Buffalo coin clubs meet with the RNA in Batavia.

February 17, 1942: RNA secretary orders seven proof sets from mint for members at $13.30 each. RNA orders 10 copies of R.S. Yeoman's first-edition Whitman Handbook of U.S. Coins. Charles Ricard applies for junior membership in RNA.

February 4, 1947: RNA purchases complete set of American Journal of Numismatics for $175. It is noted that Booker T. Washington half-dollars are sitting in a local bank. Iowa commemoratives are still available. J. Pittman appointed to Federal Assay Commission.

February 7, 1949: A. Kolb asked to destroy past RNA dies so restrikes will not be made. Club votes down motion.

February 6, 1950: RJNA works on a radio show script. They design new logo. Anyone leaving for military allowed to keep RNA membership. Charles Ricard leaves for military service.

February 2 1954: George Bauer leaves for Rome to buy coins. John J. Pittman heads for King Farouk coin sale in Egypt.

February 1, 1955: RNA donates $25 to museum to buy land where planetarium now sits.

Order your extra Lanzafame presidential medals now!

Believe it or not, it's not too soon to begin thinking about the presidential banquet and the next in our series of RNA presidential medals, featuring Joe Lanzafame. Members in good standing during 2006-07 automatically receive a bronze medal, but if you'd like a silver or an extra bronze, sign up at the next few meetings or call Bill Coe at 865-7992 by February 15. Last year's bronze medals cost $15, silver $45, but the rising cost of metal means this year's will likely cost somewhat more, to be determined when the medals are struck. (And no, this isn't really what the finished medal will look like - we hope!)
